ANCHORS AWAY ALL SHIPS - A COLORFUL THEME

by Jack Wilcox

Collecting elongateds for the Ship theme first requires a look at the alphabetical index at the back of the Dow book where six pages are listed under Ships. Next check through page by page adding any ships or boats you find, those hiding under the Golden Gate bridge and Sally Rand, Streets of Paris are not listed under Ships for example. Now your want list will start to look impressive. Of course managing to obtain some of the older coins won't be easy, but with your list as a guide the fun begins.

Checking for the modern issues will take a lot of checking of the rollers' list you have available and a page by page check of Lee Martin's, "Today's Elongateds" really is a must. If you don't have a copy the next best thing is to compare notes with other Ship theme collectors.

Reading the names of the ships I've managed to "dock" itself makes interesting reading, just listen: Old Ironsides, Monitor & Merrimac, PT 109, The Half Moon, The Cleremont, S.S. Morro Castle, U.S.S. Chicago, Queen Mary, Mayaguez, Peace Ship, Delta Queen, Schooner Gaspee, U.S.S. John F. Kennedy, Pueblo, First Steamboat, "Hit the Beach L.S.T.", and "Streets of Paris". My collection at present totals 43 different elongateds. It is fun seeking new issues and attempting to catch a few of the older issues to cross off my want list. The search continues.

I've included Lloyd Wagaman's Misc. #3 U.S. Navy, Dottie Dow's storecard Benjamin Mixon engraver Viking ship design, Chet Roger's "They that go down to the sea in ships" and of course Henry Blaha's "O, GOD Thy sea is so great and my ship is so small." I would like to find a canoe and if possible an iceboat plus of course a submarine. I have a large rowboat in Dottie Dow's John Wesley Powell Grand Canyon 1869 Trip. The Florida glass bottom boat and sponge diver boat are welcome additions.

I have three different coins for the U.S.S. John F. Kennedy which in turn tell this story: Keel laid Oct. 24, 1964 - Caroline christens May 27, 1967 - Commissioned Newport News Sept. 7, 1968. My favorite elongated in this theme is the L.S.T. on Ships # 1 because I returned home from England at the end of World War II on a slow L.S.T., after being a P.O.W. for over two years. The trip took seventeen days! My point is the individual collector can enjoy theme collecting for personal reasons and seek out elongateds that are fun and a challenge to his or her own taste.

ELONGATED THOUGHTS

by Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.

As the Bicentennial year is upon us, and as we "gracefully" grow a year older, it behooves one to reflect on the future. If the Good Lord were to call my number, today or tomorrow, what would happen to my elongated coin collection? Would it be sold for "junk", "stolen" for little or nothing, or just generally disappear? My wife professes to no interest, and my children offer only varied chide remarks, relative to my collection. I believe at times, they all believe me to be a little nutty, where these "squashed" pieces of copper are concerned. Insurance and deeds are all taken care of, but what about the elongateds?

I would sincerely like to see a "Board", set-up, perhaps consisting of one or two knowledgeable members of MEC - TEC - CCE, who would draw up guide lines to be followed, to aid and assist members families, in case of a member's death. A definite address to write to, or an available phone number, should play a definite part.

Since in all probablities, live members would be the potential buyers, the collection would stay within the designed field. I presume everyone would be happy, no one would be "robbed", the elongateds would be preserved for posterity, and the deceased could rest comfortably,

Do I hear any volunteers? - Suggestions? - Comments?

COLLECTING

by Harold Snyder

I have been a collector of elongated coins since 1962. During the years involved in collecting, I have come across some very interesting elongated coins. The Chicago World's Fair and both New York World's Fairs I find are a very interesting series to collect. There are so many different varieties.

I enjoy collecting elongated coins very much. It is a great hobby...One that can be enjoyed by old and young alike. I buy from several dealers and trade with members when I have duplicates to trade and also bid on some from various coin auctions, of which I have been quite successful at times.

I think the MEC membership elongated coin is great and I really enjoy being a member.

Dear Fellow Members,

We owe thanks to the following members for their contribution to this newsletter:

Jack Wilcox
Harold Snyder
Paul Aubry

Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.
James R. Davisson

Remember the newsletter is only as good as the contributions of the membership...So membership it's up to you.

I will admit that my correspondence has been behind, but unfortunately that cannot be helped as my business and personal obligations come first. Therefore I suggest that MEC business be directed to Paul Aubry and James E. Hicks. Newsletter information, etc. may be directed to me.

1976 Membership Elongated - The response has been excellent and the designs great! The designs are officially closed and the best entry sketched in this newsletter will be chosen by the membership. Send the design number you like best to Burton Neal Levy, P.O. Box 59428, Chicago, Il. 60659, and the most popular design selected by June 1, 1976 will be our new Membership Elongated Coin.

(I have reproduced the designs from the original sketches as best as I could using whatever aids available. The theme and general idea is the major topic. Art work can be finalized with an artist.)

ELONGATEDLY,
